Ngā uaratanga matua | Our values

Corporate Services | Te Kāhui Tangata

Te Manatū Waka's performance relies on the provision of professional corporate and support services. The Te Kāhui Tangata Group provides administrative, technical and advisory support to the Sector Strategy, Policy, Regulatory, Office of the Chief Executive and Investment & Monitoring groups of Te Manatū Waka.

Solicitor | Rōia Position

The Legal and Procurement team supports policy development, informing choices about which type of regulatory instrument is most appropriate, and using their expertise to make great law. We also give advice and assurance on legal risk to inform a range of actions and activities of the Ministry, including commercial and contract advice and advice on regulatory decision making.

The Solicitor is responsible for providing high quality, cost effective and efficient legal advice to Te Manatū Waka and Ministers.

Te mahi | What you will do

This role is responsible for:

- Providing general legal advice and other services to the Ministry of Transport and Ministers in complex and ambiguous areas of law.
- Providing robust legal advice on the development of policy, including consistency with the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act, Treaty of Waitangi, Constitution Act, Official Information Act, Privacy Act, international law and other aspects of the Legislation Advisory Committee's Guidelines.
- Providing legal and other services related to new and amending legislation, including instructing Parliamentary Counsel, and attending cabinet committees and Select Committees.
- Providing input into draft transport rules and associated regulations, including preparing drafting instructions and liaison with transport agencies and other Government Departments.
- Providing legal advice on Official Information Act and Privacy Act requests and liaise with the Ombudsman's office and Privacy Commissioner regarding complaints.
- Instructing Crown Solicitors and Crown Counsel on litigation involving Ministers or The Ministry of Transport, including prosecutions under the Submarine Cables and Pipelines Protection Act 1996.
- Drafting and reviewing contracts and agreements and reviewing other documents relating to the Ministry's activities
- Instructing external counsel to provide legal advice and manage its procurement.
- · Actively managing workload and speaking up when support or direction are needed.
- Identify risks proactively and coordinate work with others on how these risks could be managed.
- Providing training and development to Te Manatū Waka staff requiring legislative knowledge where appropriate.
- Contributing to team and Ministry planning processes, and to the development of strategies and work programmes to enhance the overall effectiveness of the team
- Represent the Ministry of Transport in a wide range of situations, including government agencies, transport sector and community groups

The duties and responsibilities in this document are not exhaustive. The incumbent may be required to perform other work which is consistent with the nature of the role.
