Hei Arataki is underpinned by the following Guiding Principles | Ngā Mātāpono:

Diversity and inclusion | Te rereketanga me te whakauru

We want our workforce to increasingly reflect the communities we serve. The Ministry welcomes and supports people diverse backgrounds including people of all gender identities, ages, ethnicities, sexual orientations, disabilities and religions. A requirement of this role is to actively support and promote our diversity and inclusion principles.

Your health, safety and wellbeing | Te hauora, haumaru me to oranga

At the Ministry we expect all employees to:

- work safely and take responsibility for keeping self and colleagues free from harm
- report incidents and hazards promptly
- know what to do in the event of an emergency
- ensure personal health and safety standards are adhered to when at work or offsite when working.

Performance Expectations | Mahi, he aha te mea e tumanakohia ana

We are a high performing organisation. A key part of this is being clear about roles and expectations. The Ministry's expectations of Senior Advisers are set out below. The intent is to clarify, make visible and clearly communicate expectations to ensure common understanding and consistency.

The Senior Adviser - Corporate Accountability uses the same performance expectations as Senior Advisers.

Delivery Leadership

Senior advisers work on and often have a leadership role in complex, ambiguous and sensitive work. Senior advisers are skilled at scoping a piece of work and making connections to related areas of work to deliver the result the Ministry needs. They effectively plan and manage projects, and anticipate issues before they arise. Senior advisers deliver and work with others to deliver products that are fit-for-purpose, timely, and high quality.

Self and Team Focus

Senior Advisers are honest & courageous, curious, self-aware & agile and resilient. Senior advisers focus on developing and cementing their professional skills so that they have a deep tool kit. They build capability within their team by pro-actively supporting more junior staff on core skills, stakeholder engagement, planning, and navigating through complex issues. Senior advisers model these behaviours.

Ministry Contribution

Senior advisers understand the Ministry's priorities and objectives, and contribute to accomplishing Ministry goals. Senior Advisers get involved across the Ministry. They foster a culture of learning, share their knowledge and experience, and help to challenge thinking.

Professional Capability

Senior advisers apply well-developed professional knowledge and skills to their work. Senior advisers are capable of working with minimal supervision but seek guidance on complex issues, and test possible solutions to problems. They know and use a range of techniques, models and frameworks relevant to their work, and use the most appropriate approach in a given situation.

(External) Engagement

Senior Advisers are connected outside the team and the Ministry – they are visible, valued and operate across a range of networks. Senior Advisers develop, build and share knowledge, collaborate with others, and influence the agenda. They effectively represent the Ministry's interests and are trusted advisers.

INTEGRITY EXCELLENCE COLLABORATION

Leadership Success Profile – capabilities | Pūkete Arataki Whaihua

We use the Leadership Success Profile (LSP) to help guide our people, including those not in management positions, towards the skills and capabilities needed for success within the Ministry and across the public sector.

HONEST & COURAGEOUS

Deliver the hard messages and makes difficult decisions in a timely manner to advance the longer term best interests of customers and New Zealand.

CURIOUS

Show curiosity, flexibility, and openness in analysing and integrating ideas, information, and differing perspective – to make fit for purpose decisions.

SELF-AWARE & AGILE

Leverage self-awareness to improve skills and adapt approach; to strengthen personal capability over time and optimise effectiveness with different situations and people.

RESILIENCE

Show composure, grit, and a sense of perspective when the going gets tough – to help others maintain optimism and focus.
